(2) Scope. Disciplinary action may be imposed for violations of the Student Honor Code or Student Conduct Code occurring at any of the following locations or activities:

(a) University campus;

(b) Housing of any University of Florida organization or group, including but not limited to fraternity and sorority property;

(c) Activities officially approved by the University of Florida or which are sponsored or conducted by University groups and organizations (merely notifying the University community of an activity or opportunity does not make it a University or University group or organization approved, sponsored or conducted activity); and

(d) Other off-campus conduct as set forth in this paragraph subsection (d):

1. When a student violates a municipal or county ordinance or violates state or federal law or a foreign country’s law by an offense committed off the university campus and which is not associated with a University activity or program, the conduct authority of the University will not be used merely to duplicate the penalty imposed for such an act under applicable ordinances and laws.

2. The University may take conduct action against a student for off-campus conduct if it is required by law to do so, if the conduct arises from University activities, or if the conduct poses a significant threat to the safety or security of the University community, or if the conduct poses a significant threat of undermining the University’s educational process.

If a faculty member has authorized a student to use materials or to collaborate or consult with another person in limited circumstances, the student shall not exceed that authority.
