6C1-4.016 Student Conduct Code; Violations, Penalties and Procedures for Adjudication.

(1) Philosophy. The University of Florida is an institution which encourages the intellectual and personal growth of its students as scholars and citizens. As an educational institution, the University recognizes that the transmission of knowledge, the pursuit of truth, and the development of individuals require the free exchange of ideas, self-expression, and the challenging of beliefs and customs. In order to maintain an environment where these goals can be achieved safely and equitably, the University promotes civility, respect, and integrity among all members of the community. As stated in the Standard of Ethical Conduct, students are expected to exhibit high standards of behavior and concern for others. The University strives to protect and guide the educational community by establishing a Student Conduct Code and student judicial system, which promotes individual and social responsibility. Choosing to join the University of Florida community obligates each member to a code of civilized behavior. Individuals and student organizations are expected to observe the policies, rules, and regulations of the University of Florida and the State of Florida. University policies have been designed to protect individuals and the campus community and create an environment conducive to achieving the academic mission of the institution. The purpose of the Student Conduct Code is to set forth the specific authority and responsibility of the University in maintaining social discipline, to establish guidelines which facilitate a just and civil campus community, and to outline the educational process for determining student and student organization responsibility for alleged violations of University regulations. procedures for insuring fundamental fairness and an educational experience that facilitates the development of the individual and of the organization.

Except for emergency cases, the notice shall be issued at least ten (10) business days prior to the date of the hearing unless waived in writing by the accused student. Pre-hearing conferences may be held to review charges, resolve issues, clarify rights and procedures, and permit the inspection or copying of evidence to be used at hearings. If a student chooses to utilize an advisor, it is the student’s responsibility to identify an advisor and make appropriate arrangements for him or her to attend the proceedings. The advisor shall assist the student in the judicial process, but shall not speak for or present the case on behalf of a student.

(b) Hearings shall preserve the fairness of the action and rights of persons involved. Except as provided in subsection 5(c) below, students charged with less serious violations can choose an informal proceeding or a formal hearing. Less serious violations are those violations for which removal from housing, suspension, or expulsion would not be imposed. Except as provided in subsection 5(c) below, students charged with more serious violations will choose between a formal hearing with a conduct committee or a university hearing authority.

1. Students who choose an informal proceeding shall be accorded the right to:
   a. Have an advisor present;

(c) A student charged under this regulation who has pled guilty, been adjudicated guilty, been convicted or who has otherwise received a verdict of guilt in a criminal court of law for a violation which is based upon the same conduct for which the student is charged under this regulation, may be found in violation of subsection (2)(r) of this regulation and/or other applicable violations under this regulation on the basis of that plea, guilty verdict, adjudication of guilt and/or conviction. Any such student shall be afforded the opportunity to participate in an informal proceeding in accordance with subsection (5)(b)1 above. During the informal proceeding, the charged student’s prior plea, adjudication of guilt and/or conviction may be regarded by the hearing authority as substantial evidence of the charged student’s responsibility for the alleged violation; however the student will also be allowed to present any mitigating facts or circumstances to the hearing authority. The hearing authority shall consider the information presented by the student in determining the student’s responsibility for the alleged violation and in imposing sanctions.

(d) In the event that the student fails to appear pursuant to the notice that was sent or delivered under paragraph (5)(a) of this regulation, the reviewing authority shall conduct the proceeding in the student’s absence, and the reviewing authority will make a decision based on the information presented at the hearing. In such instances, a decision will be issued within five (5) business days of the hearing.

(e) A student judicial hearing is an opportunity for a student to challenge the content of the student's educational record and is closed unless the accused requests an open hearing a minimum of five (5) working days before the hearing and all student witnesses concur in writing.

(f) Findings shall be based upon a preponderance of the evidence. Upon such findings, the person or body hearing the action shall determine which sanction or sanctions should be imposed in accordance with subsection (3) above. Written notice of findings and any sanction to be imposed or recommended shall be furnished to the student charged with a violation of this regulation.

(g) The Student Conduct Committee, Student Honor Court and the Health Center Student Conduct Standards Committee make a recommendation to the Dean of Students concerning findings and sanctions to be imposed, if any. The College of Law Honor Committee makes a recommendation to the Appellate Board, as defined in Regulation 6C1-4.0212, concerning findings and sanctions to be imposed, if any.

(h) If the Dean of Students determines from a review of the record, and states with particularity in a written notice to all affected persons that a finding was not based upon substantial evidence or an action did not comply with the requirements of law or applicable
University regulations, the finding may be rejected and/or the case may be re-heard. If the record supports the finding, the Dean of Students can accept, modify or reject the recommended sanction.

(i) The Dean of Students may reject his or her prior findings or sanctions and may reopen the case for further proceedings in accordance with this regulation, in the following circumstances:

1. The Dean of Students is subsequently presented with evidence, testimony, facts or other circumstances from a criminal or civil proceeding which are material to the University proceeding and/or findings made by the Dean of Students based on that proceeding; and

2. This evidence, testimony, facts or other circumstances were not available to the University at the time of the University proceeding.

Findings or sanctions imposed under this regulation shall not be rejected solely on the basis of an adjudication of not guilty, an acquittal, a dismissal, a reduction of charges or other finding in favor of the student in a criminal or civil proceeding.

(6) Decisions made by the Director of Student Judicial Affairs, the Assistant Director of Student Judicial Affairs, and the Coordinator of Residential Judicial Programs can be appealed to the Dean of Students. Decisions made by the Dean of Students, in cases other than decisions resulting from an appeal to the Dean from another hearing authority, can be appealed to the Vice President for Student Affairs. Appeals to the Dean of Students and the Vice President for Student Affairs (hereinafter "reviewing authority") must be filed in writing and contact made with the reviewing authority within ten (10) business days from the date of the decision letter for the purpose of scheduling an appointment, unless otherwise agreed upon in writing by the student and the reviewing authority. The actual appointment must be scheduled within ten (10) business days of filing the appeal unless otherwise approved by the reviewing authority. If the student fails to appear for the appointment, the reviewing authority will make a decision based on the written material. Criteria for filing an appeal is limited to the following grounds: (a) the student's rights were violated in the hearing process; (b) new material evidence that could not have been discovered at the time of the hearing; (c) the evidence did not support the decision by a preponderance of the evidence; and (d) the sanction(s) imposed were not appropriate for the violation. The decision on the appeal should be made within fifteen (15) calendar days following the meeting with the student except in exceptional circumstances. The decision of the reviewing authority shall be final.

(7) Records of disciplinary actions shall be maintained in accordance with Regulation 6C1-4.026(3).

(8) Disciplinary sanctions which may result in limits being placed on extracurricular activities and/or registration, do not take effect until any appeal requested has been completed. If no appeal is requested, the final action with respect to the above will take effect upon expiration of the appeal time.
