

REGULATIONS OF THE
UNIVERSITY OF FLORIDA

7.036 Complaints Against Faculty Members.

(1) Complaints against a faculty member should normally be in writing and signed by the complainant in order for the University to proceed with an official inquiry into the complaint. However, complaints may also be verbal or anonymous.

(2) Complaints involving allegations of fraudulent or other dishonest acts, shall be referred to the Office of Internal Audit in accordance with the University's Policy Against Fraudulent or Other Dishonest Acts, as in effect at the relevant time. A copy of this policy can be obtained from the Office of Internal Audit website at http://oacr.ufl.edu/policies_and_procedures.html.

(3) Complaints involving allegations of sexual harassment or sexual misconduct shall be made to the Director of Employee and Labor Relations or the University Title IX Coordinator and shall be handled in accordance with the University's Policy on Sexual Harassment as in effect at the relevant time. A copy of this policy can be obtained at <http://www.hr.ufl.edu/eo/sexharassment.htm> or from the University Title IX Coordinator at 903 West University Avenue, eeo@ufl.edu or 352-392-2477.

(4) Complaints regarding restricted data breaches, including without limitation violations of privacy laws and regulations, shall be submitted to the University of Florida Privacy Office in accordance with University of Florida Regulation 1.0103.

(5) Complaints regarding non-compliance involving human subjects research shall be submitted to the University of Florida Institutional Review Board Office at <http://irb.ufl.edu/noncompliance.html>.

(6) Complaints regarding non-compliance involving research animals shall be submitted to the Institutional Animal Care and Use Committee (IACUC) at <http://iacuc.ufl.edu/mistreatment.htm>.

(7) Complaints that represent allegations of research misconduct shall be submitted and handled in accordance with the University's Policy for Dealing with Conduct in Research, University of Florida Regulation 1.0101.

(8) All other complaints from outside the University should be addressed or forwarded either to the President or to the Provost. The complaint may be handled by the addressee or forwarded to the dean (or director) or the appropriate senior vice president for the college of the faculty member concerned for appropriate action as set forth in sections (9) and (10) below.

(9) All other complaints from inside the University shall be submitted directly to the department chair of the faculty member concerned, except as set forth in section (10) of this regulation, who shall inform the dean (or director) or the appropriate senior vice president of the complaint.

(a) The department chair, other appropriate administrator or designee shall determine whether the complaint is sufficiently credible and specific so that potential evidence of misconduct may be identified and, therefore, that investigation of the complaint is justified. If it is determined that an investigation is justified, an investigation will be conducted, and prior to completion the faculty member shall be informed of the receipt of the complaint and will be given an opportunity to respond to the complaint in writing within ten (10) days.

(b) The department chair, administrator or designee shall review the complaint, conduct the investigation of the complaint, review the faculty member's written response, and provide a report to the dean (or director) or appropriate vice president stating whether:

1. the complaint lacks substance and no further action is necessary; or
2. the complaint has substance and remedial action shall be taken at the department or college level.

(c) The dean (or director) or appropriate vice president shall subsequently review the complaint, together with the faculty member's written response and the department chair's or administrator's report. If the report states the complaint has substance and remedial action should be taken at the college level, the dean (or director) or appropriate vice president shall determine the necessary appropriate remedial actions.

(10) Complaints involving IFAS or Health Center faculty described under section (9) of this regulation shall be submitted to either a dean or to the senior vice president of the faculty member concerned or a designee, who shall determine whether investigation of the complaint is justified. If it is determined that the investigation of the complaint is justified, an investigation will be conducted, and prior to completion the faculty member shall be informed of the receipt of the complaint and will be given an opportunity to respond to the complaint in writing within 10 days. The Dean or Senior Vice President shall review the complaint, the investigation report and the faculty member's response and shall determine the necessary appropriate remedial actions.
